

Dr. Jerome E. King

Called to shepherd and committed to serve, Dr. Jerome E. King has faithfully led Mount Moriah Baptist Church since October 19, 2008. As the twelfth pastor of this historic congregation, he guides the church with spiritual depth, clear vision, and unwavering faith.

His ministry began in 1985 while serving in the United States Air Force, where he first answered God's call to preach. Over the years, he has helped shape pastors and churches nationwide through leadership roles at Luther Rice Seminary, the North American Mission Board, and the Georgia Baptist Convention.

Dr. King holds a B.S. in Vocational Education from Southern Illinois University at Carbondale Illinois. He earned a Master's degree in Bible and Ministry (Summa Cum Laude) from Lubbock Christian University in Lubbock Texas. In addition, he holds a Doctor of Ministry degree from Luther Rice Seminary in Lithonia, Georgia and a Ph.D. (and Certificate of Advanced Graduate Studies) in Organizational Leadership from Regent University in Virginia Beach, Virginia.

Dr. King brings together theological depth and organizational insight. His preaching blends biblical clarity with practical application, transforming lives from North America to Africa.

Among the highlights of his journey was meeting and interviewing Archbishop Desmond Tutu in Cape Town and equipping pastors in Nairobi, Kenya.

Above all, Dr. King remains devoted to preaching Christ, developing leaders, strengthening families, and helping believers grow deeper in faith. He is the grateful father of two adult children.

A Deeper Word for a Deeper Life

"A Deeper Word for a Deeper Life" is more than a theme—it is a distinct expression of Dr. King's calling. This platform carries ministry beyond the pulpit, pouring into people and empowering churches to walk confidently in God's purpose.

Through preaching engagements, leadership intensives, and strategic development experiences, this ministry equips congregations and leaders with biblical depth and practical direction. Rooted in sound doctrine and guided by proven leadership principles, A Deeper Word for a Deeper Life continues to expand its reach—encouraging faithful leadership and purposeful living for the glory of God.
